Every topic sentence must relate to the thesis statement.

Topic Sentence: One sentence revealing the specific topic of your paragraph
State: Give your opinion, thought, or idea regarding your topic (YOURS)
Cite: Back up your opinion by using information from other sources (don't forget to CITE!)
Explain: Give a few sentences as to how your proof and statement work together to support your thesis—answer the "So what?" or "What importance is this proof to your paper?" You may be asked to repeat the S— C – E steps
 Summarize and extend: Review but don't restate the topic. Connect the topic to larger ideas and/or bridge to next topic.

Thesis:
Body 1: Topic
State:
Cite:
Explain:
Trans/State:
Cite:
Explain:
Summarize/ Extend:
Body 2: Topic
State:
Cite:
Explain:
Trans/State:
Cite:
Explain:
Summ/Extend

Every topic sentence must relate to the thesis statement.

Topic Sentence: One sentence revealing the specific topic of your paragraph
State: Give your opinion, thought, or idea regarding your topic (YOURS)
Cite: Back up your opinion by using information from other sources (don't forget to CITE!)
Explain: Give a few sentences as to how your proof and statement work together to support your thesis—answer the "So what?" or "What importance is this proof to your paper?" You may be asked to repeat the S— C – E steps
 Summarize and extend: Review but don't restate the topic. Connect the topic to larger ideas and/or bridge to next topic.

Body 3: Topic
State:
Cite:
Explain:
Trans/State:
Cite:
Explain:
State:
Summarize/ Extend:
Concluding Paragraph	